

CureWise Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 1st March 2025

Welcome to CureWise. Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and protect your data when using our AI-powered healthcare platform. By accessing or using CureWise, you agree to the terms outlined below.

1. Data Collection

CureWise is still under development, and while we prioritize privacy, we may collect limited data to improve our services. This may include:

- Basic usage data (e.g., interaction logs, feature engagement) for system optimization.
- Non-personalized health-related inputs for refining AI insights.
- No personally identifiable or sensitive health information is stored or shared.

2. Use of Data

Any data collected is used strictly for:

- Enhancing the accuracy and effectiveness of AI-generated insights.
- Improving platform functionality and user experience.
- Ensuring compliance with security and ethical standards.

We do not share, sell, or misuse user data for any commercial purposes.

3. AI Models & Intellectual Property

All AI models powering CureWise are proprietary and uniquely developed. These models are exclusively reserved under the names Harsh Jain and Abhijit Rajpurohit. Any unauthorized use, replication, or redistribution of our AI technology is strictly prohibited.

4. Data Security

We take reasonable measures to safeguard collected data, including:

- Secure storage and encryption of any logged interactions.
- Access control mechanisms to prevent unauthorized use.
- Regular audits to enhance privacy and security protocols.

5. User Control & Transparency

As CureWise continues to evolve, we aim to provide users with control over their data, including options to:

- Access general insights without storing personal details.
- Request deletion of any collected usage data (if applicable).

6. Policy Updates

Since CureWise is actively developing, this Privacy Policy may be updated periodically. Continued use of the platform after updates means you accept the revised terms.
